GGCF INTRODUCES NEW PRESIDENT, OFFICERS

The Garden Grove Community Foundation (GGCF) begins the year with a new President and Board of Directors. This year's President is John Borack, Director of Community Affairs for Time Warner Cable. Borack is a long time member of the Foundation, and former Vice President. "My goal as the new President is to work closely with the Foundation to continue providing programs and activities that enhance the quality of life for Garden Grove residents," said Borack. Borack is an active member in the Garden Grove community and supporter of the Summer Concert Series. Borack officially assumed his new title at the organization's first board meeting of the year on Monday, January 12.

Other incoming GGCF board officers are: Vice President Jennifer Gonzalez, Public Affairs Manager for Southern California Gas Company; Secretary Jane Oglesby, community leader and arts enthusiast; and Treasurer Dave Ault, Executive Director-Franchise Administration for Garden Grove Disposal.

Phil Wolfgramm, the General Manager for the Sheraton Hotel, was elected the new Alternate-at-Large.

The newest member from the Garden Grove City Council, Bruce Broadwater, was named as the Board's City Council representative.

The GGCF is a non-profit 501c(3) organization dedicated to providing leadership and resources to enhance community life in Garden Grove.
