THE SILVERADOS BLAZE A TRAIL TO THE SUMMER CONCERT SERIES IN GARDEN GROVE

Country Top-40 with a classic rock edge comes to the 2009 Summer Concert Series with an appearance by The Silverados, August 13 at 6:30 p.m. The Garden Grove Community Foundation (GGCF) holds the weekly Thursday concerts in Eastgate Park, at 12001 St. Mark Street, at the west end of Chapman Avenue. The concerts are free and open to the public.

Unlike your typical country folk bands, the Silverados play high-energy music with two female lead vocalists. They put a rock and roll spin on popular country western hits.

Food and beverages may be purchased at the concert from the following vendors: Funnel of Love, Hapa Cup, Oggi's Pizza & Brewing Company, Pops Kettle Corn, U-Doggee, and Valuetina's Pizza.

The next bands to play at Eastgate Park are:

August 20	Barry Holdship Four	50's/60's Rock
August 27	The Answer	Classic Rock

The 2009 Free Summer Concert Series is sponsored by: the City of Garden Grove, Garden Grove Disposal, GKN Aerospace, and Time Warner Cable.
